THE CONCERT AT RIDGEWAY.—It

was our pleasure to attend the Grand Musical Concert, given at Ridgeway

Wednesday by the truly public spirited and enterprising ladies and gentlemen of the Village, and surrounding neighborhood, assisted by several select musicians from Warrenton and Raleigh.

The concert was gotten up for the purpose of raising funds for the benefit of the new Episcopal Church, that is now nearly completed, and we are glad to state that in every particular it was a grand success.

The Hall used for the occasion was the upper room of the large front drying establishment of Dr. W. J. Hawkins, which was sufficiently large for the NATIONAL REFORM TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:
HORACE GREELEY,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
B. GRANT BROWN,
OF MISSOURI.

ELECTORS FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT.

First District—Octavius Coke, of Chowan.

Second District—Swift Galloway, of Greene.

Third District—T. C. Fuller, of Cumberland.

Fourth District—H. A. London, Jr., of Chatham.

Fifth District—David F. Caldwell, of Guilford.

Sixth District—W. L. Steele, of Richmond.

Seventh District—F. B. McDowell, of Irede.

Eighth District—Thomas D. Johnston, of Buncombe.

IRREVERENCE.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE RIGHTEOUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'"—Delano, Grant's Secretary of Interior, in his speech at Raleigh.

IN THIS FAITH, AND WITH THE DISTINCT UNDERSTANDING THAT IF ELECTED, I SHALL BE THE PRESIDENT, NOT OF A PARTY, BUT OF THE WHOLE PEOPLE, I ACCEPT YOUR NOMINATION IN THE CONFIDENT TRUST THAT THE MASSES OF OUR COUNTRYMEN, NORTH AND SOUTH, ARE EAGER TO CLASP HANDS ACROSS THE BLOODY CHASM, WHICH HAS TOO LONG DIVIDED THEM, FORGETTING THAT THEY HAVE BEEN ENEMIES, IN THE JOYFUL CONSCIOUSNESS THAT THEY ARE, AND MUST HEREAFTER BE, BROTHERS.

—HORACE GREELEY.

"We want a President without a party; a government without corruption; a Congress without price; and a Judiciary without politics."—B. Grant Brown.

A REQUEST.

We would be glad to get the full name and Post Office address of every member elect to the Legislature, so that we may publish a correct list for the information of the public. The first list published by us was very inaccurate, although we notice it continues to be copied by our contemporaries.

Will not some friend in each County send us the desired information concerning his own member or members?

AMBITION AND DISAPPOINTMENT.

This is the state of man. To-day he puts forth the tender leaves of hope, to-morrow blossoms, and bears his blushing honors thick upon him.

The third day, comes a frost, a killing frost. And when he falls, he falls like Lucifer. Never to hope again.

Still in thy right hand carry gentle peace, To silence envious tongues: be just, and let all the ends thou aim'st at be thy country's, Thy God's, and truth's.

—KING HENRY VIII.

We cannot conceal our mortification at the suicidal conduct of John Quincy Adams.

Mr. Adams has heretofore held a high position in the affections and confidence of our party. He has done gallant service in our cause.

As the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, thrice has he borne our banner bravely through the fiery conflict. And though that banner drooped in defeat—though its battle-scarred folds were down before the force of over-powering numbers, yet no stain rested upon its escutcheon and no dishonor blurred the name of its dauntless ensign.

With scarcely a hope of success, as the apostle of Constitutional liberty, he led his undimmed forces against the ramparts of the enemy, and by his courage, intrepidity, patriotism and self-sacrifice achieved a moral victory far more honorable and far nobler than the undeserved success of his political foes.

As the leader of the Massachusetts Democracy, as a worthy representative of the line of illustrious ancestors, and an eloquent advocate of peace and reconciliation between the sections, Mr. Adams has done more for his countrymen, and for the political friends of his country, than any other man of his time.

"I admit that the next President must be Grant or Greeley. The circumstances of the political situation limit our choice to these two men as strictly as if no body else were legally eligible. We must weigh them against one another, and, like practical men, decide the case before us in favor of the best. Even if we find no good in either of them, we must take that one which shall appear to be least bad."

—The contrast between the two candidates being so very strong, no fair-party and brought his own political career to an untimely and inglorious end.

The blushing honors which he won in the hard-fought contests in the Old Bay State, have been withered by the frosts of disappointment and defeat. Ambition, by which "sin fell the angels," like an ignis fatuus, lures him on to political ruin.

Charles Francis Adams, father of John Quincy Adams, was a very prominent candidate before the Cincinnati Convention for the Presidency. He was the strongest man against Greeley, and for a number of ballots ran ahead of all opponents. His nomination at one time was considered certain, and he came within a very few votes of winning the race. Had the father been nominated on the platform on which Greeley stands, no doubt the son would have thought him a marvelous proper man, and would have regarded the action of the Democratic party in endorsing the nomination as a marvelous proper act.

Oh! the bane of disappointed ambition!

John Quincy Adams has no doubt had his own eye on the Presidency for some time. His name has been prominently mentioned in high circles in connection with that exalted office. But he imagined he saw his fond hopes decay, when the Democratic party at Baltimore, for the sake of the peace of the country, for the sake of destroying Radicalism, and for the sake of establishing a pure, honest and Constitutional Administration, decided to abandon a hopeless contest of its own, and to ally its forces with those of the Reformers, who had turned their backs upon the strifes and the bitterness of the past, and were marching in solid column to the music of a restored brotherhood and a rehabilitated Union.

To Mr. Adams' disappointment consequent on his father's defeat at Cincinnati, may we not add his own personal ambition to see his name flying with that of Charles O'Connor from the masthead of a half dozen influential political sheets, as another cause why he has permitted his name to be used against the nominees of the National Democratic Convention?

It seems strange but true, Mr. Adams is so insatiably desirous of notoriety, that for the sake of the empty honor of playing second fiddle to a ticket which cannot hope to carry a single electoral vote, he is willing to lend his name and his influence to distract and divide his own party, and thus indirectly give aid and comfort to the Radicals!

Mr. Adams has been a progressive Democrat. His letters and public speeches have been in full accord with the Missouri Liberal movement. He has always discarded from his political text-book effete doctrines and fossilized issues. He has been abreast with the foremost in recognizing the situation and turning his back upon the past.

We thought, of all the Democratic statesmen in the North, he would be the first to echo back the shout of a united brotherhood and of the clasping of hands by the North and the South.

We thought he would rush forward in the fight, carrying in his "right hand gentle peace" to silence malicious tongues.

But, alas! that "vaulting ambition which o'erleaps itself," has seized upon him, and holds him tightly in its fatal grasp!

He has dimmed a glorious record, by listening to the silver tongue of the political siren that is leading him to irretrievable ignominy. He has become a tool in the hands of political disorganizers and agitators, and thus prostituted his talents and influence in a hopeless and unworthy cause.

He can only partially atone for this great error by renouncing his present political companionship, and joining hands once again with his old friends and associates whose surprise at his course is only equalled by their sorrow and mortification.

GRANT OR GREELEY.

It is a fact patent to every reasonable mind, that the next President of the United States must be either Grant or Greeley.

The nominees of the Louisville Convention do not stand the ghost of a chance to carry a single State.

What will be the eventual effect of the Louisville nominations cannot with certainty be told; but if we take Mr. O'Connor's letter as the sentiments of its adherents, the movement is more likely to injure Grant than Greeley. Mr. O'Connor very clearly intimates his preference for the former, and it compelled to vote at all, would support the Radical nominee.

But however that may be, it seems now reduced to an absolute certainty that the fight is strictly between Grant and Greeley.

Mon. Jeremiah Black, of Pennsylvania, one of our ablest statesmen, says truly:

"I admit that the next President must be Grant or Greeley. The circumstances of the political situation limit our choice to these two men as strictly as if no body else were legally eligible. We must weigh them against one another, and, like practical men, decide the case before us in favor of the best. Even if we find no good in either of them, we must take that one which shall appear to be least bad."

—The contrast between the two candidates being so very strong, no fair-mined Democrat can doubt what he ought to do."

Now, Mr. Black was bitterly opposed to the nomination of Greeley at Baltimore. He wrote an able letter, before that Convention met, taking strong ground against the endorsement of the Cincinnati nominees.

But after the nomination was made, Mr. Black, like a sensible man and wise statesman, yielded to the voice of the people, and advised his friends to support Greeley and Brown.

In the above extract, Judge Black has stated the matter in a nutshell. As he says, no fair minded Democrat ought to hesitate a single moment as to the course which duty has so plainly marked out.

It is either Greeley or Grant. The choice is confined to these two candidates.

Which one of the two promises most for the South?

Which one will perform most?

Is any argument necessary?

The above statement of the proposition is sufficient.

THE CHIEF ISSUES.

The chief issues of the Presidential campaign may be reduced to two:—First, HONESTY versus CORRUPTION, and secondly, CONSTITUTIONALISM versus DESPOTISM.

In the first place, there has never before been witnessed in the history of any Administration, so much fraud, dishonesty and shameless corruption as have disgraced that of Gen. Grant.

We say nothing now of the wholesale robberies of the South by the Carpet-bag governments, which have fleeced our people out of over two hundred millions of dollars, and for which crime the Grant party is directly responsible.

But we speak of the frauds practiced in the United States Revenue Department, in which knavish officials squander the public money and thus keep the people embarrassed and impoverished.

When Horace Greeley is elected President, which will be on the fifth of November, he will turn out the present horde of official thieves and robbers who are daily preying upon the Treasury, and growing rich from the spoils of office.

In the second place, Greeley will restore civil law in the South. There will be an end to bayonet rule under his Administration.

He says Congress has legislated enough for the Southern States. He is in favor of local State governments, and of withdrawing the military power from peaceful communities. Under his Administration, civil law will be made supreme again. The right of trial by jury will afford our citizens protection against courts-martial organized to convict. The writ of Habeas Corpus will be safely guarded, and the Constitution will again become a power in the land. Despotism will cease. Illegal arrests will cease. We will once again breathe the free air of liberty, and we will feel a pride in knowing that we have a government which guarantees to every man in the land, the humblest as well as the greatest, those great fundamental, organic rights which every country claiming to be Republican, vouchsafes to its citizens in return for their allegiance and good conduct.

CHARLES O'CONNOR DECLINES
NO NOMINATION AT LOUISVILLE—THE CONVENTION
ADJOURNS IN A ROW!

From our telegraphic dispatches, it will be seen that the Louisville bubble has burst!

The telegrams are somewhat unsatisfactory and confused, but they are sufficiently intelligible to show that the Straight Out Convention has collapsed—without a nomination.

Mr. Charles O'Connor dispatched to the Convention that it was impossible for him to accept the nomination, and he positively declined to do so. This proved a bomb shell in the camp of the Duncan followers, and everything was soon in the wildest confusion.

In the meantime the Louisiana delegation withdrew—for what cause our noon dispatches do not indicate.

The applause in the galleries over O'Connor's declination excited a good deal of feeling among the members, and led to an angry debate.

A programme to give the nomination of President to John Quincy Adams, and that of Vice-President to James Lyons or one Edgerton, was set on foot, but it seems to have been abandoned, and the Convention adjourned without making any nomination in place of O'Connor.

Thus the ticket is without a head, and the affair turns out to be a huge failure.

After all the fuss that has been made after the strenuous efforts of Grant's officials to galvanize a little life into the corpse of Bourbonism—after all the newspaper notoriety that has been given to the affair, we have an exhibition of the most ridiculous farce ever enacted by a National political assemblage.

So ends the Louisville fiasco.

NO CREDIT.

The Wilson Ledger, edited by our esteemed young friends, Barnes and Weaver, did us the honor of copying our recent editorial on PRACK AND RECONCILIATION, but inadvertently failed to give us credit therefor.

We feel sure this was not intentional on their part, as they have heretofore invariably treated us with marked courtesy.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN DELAWARE.

In our yesterday's issue, we published a dispatch of the triumph of the Democratic and Liberal ticket in the recent municipal election in Wilmington, Delaware.

By a fusion of the Liberals and Democrats there, the victory over the Radical candidate was an easy one.

This shows what can be done by united action and complete harmony.

If our friends elsewhere will follow the example set in Wilmington, the days of Radicalism will soon be numbered.

This is the first Democratic Mayor Wilmington has had for twelve years.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Gerrit Smith has seven relatives who are voters. They are all for Greeley.

Of 110 Republican votes in Portage City, Wis., 107 of them are Greeleyites. There are some Liberals there.

Mr. Seward "declines to say a good word for Grant." So means the Auburn Advertiser, (Administration).

The Cincinnati Enquirer claims 30,000 Liberal majority in Ohio in October. It is an estimate as good as the rest.

The Radicals don't like ex-Senator Doolittle's dignified denial of the charge made against him. What, in wonder's name, will satisfy them?

The tariff taxes, it is now proved, have been reduced from $189,000,000 to $111,000,000. Do the tax-payers wait four years more of this reduction?

Fourteen thousand out of ninety five thousand Republican voters in North Carolina know how to read. It is a pity; but that is the whole number.

It is queer, isn't it? At Blue Island, Ill., where there were said to be only two Greeley men, the Greeley club just formed number eighty, precisely.

The Radicals are trying to laugh down Gen. Bank's speech at Saccaparra, Me. It is a hard job. They can laugh down neither its tones nor its facts.

Fifteen Grant men made themselves a club of four hundred in a Wisconsin town, lately. Where, oh! where, are the other three hundred and eighty-five?

A letter from Pittsburg gives a list of between six and seven hundred names of the old Republicans of Allegheny county who have come out for Greeley and Brown.

Of the five newspapers printed at Trenton, N. J., four are for Greeley and one for Grant. Two of the Greeley papers are published by Liberal Republicans.

Ass Gen. Butler has failed to secure the nomination for the Governorship of Massachusetts, we would suggest that he be appointed by the President, with all the solemnities, to the position of Grand Keeper of the Spoils.

Of the four tickets in Louisiana, consolidated now into two, McEnery (Democrat) claims 60,000; Penn (Liberal) 20,000. Total for Greeley, 80,000—Kellogg (Grant, white) 60,000; Pinchback (Grant, colored) 15,000. Total for Grant, 75,000.

The Republicans in New York find themselves in a dilemma. They are afraid that if they aid the Louisville movement it will prove a failure, and if they do that their candidate for Governor will change his politics again and go for the Louisville nominee.

The Boston Herald remarks that "there are really but two parties in the present crisis of the country, those who wish to shake hands across the bloody chasm and those who are determined to continue shaking their fists at each other." It is never too often to say this.

It will do no harm to remember that Wendell Phillips, who is just now doing what in him lies to defeat Horace Greeley, did his best to beat Lincoln in 1860 and to beat Grant in 1868. Both Lincoln and Grant were elected in spite of Phillips, and there is every prospect that his opposition to Greeley will have a similar result.—Exchange.

A letter has been received from ex-Governor Randolph, of New Jersey, now in West Virginia, in which he says Governor Jacobs, independent candidate for Governor, who is probably elected, personally pledged himself unreservedly to further the election of Greeley and Brown, as was, some time since, stated in this paper.

Gen. Garfield said in a recent speech that "Gen. Grant has taken hold of the finances of the country." "True," says the Louisville Courier-Journal, "and the recently discovered deficit of several millions in the Treasury would seem to indicate that he has not only taken himself, but has suffered a number of other double-fisted fellows to do the same."

One of the questions of the campaign that have not been asked is, "How many of Grant's emissaries answered to their names at the Louisville side show?"

Henry Hatton, a member of the State Central Republican Committee, from Prince George's county, Md., has declared for Greeley, and intends to take the stump.

Uncle Tom Shaw, a colored voter of Robeson county, N. C., 108 years old, rode five miles to cast his vote for Merriam. Who will say now that white hairs are not wisdom?

The New Jersey Radicals, last Thursday, meeting in Trenton, warmly endorsed Grant's policy of "peace." They would have given a point to their resolution by referring to the South.

It now appears that General Charles Albright, Grant's candidate for Congress in Pennsylvania, is charged with having been a "bounty jumper" in the "days that tried men's souls."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

VALUABLE HINTS.—A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the effluvia of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory, and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or tonic, or an anti-bilious agent, or a nerve, or a blood purifier, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It finds activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the nervous and choleric liver, braces the nerves, and cures the morbid humors. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristic virtues that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

A MELANCHOLY BREAK-DOWN.—There are lively break-downs that make an audience laugh, and there are sad and sorrowful break-downs that make the kind-hearted grieve. To the latter class belongs the condition of body and mind which is usually called "general debility," or "nervous weakness," and which, when neglected, often terminates in atrophy and death. A wholesome medicated stimulant is the one thing needed in cases of this description, and science and experience unite in pointing to PLANTAGIO BITTERS as the true specific for this class of ailments. The properties of an invigorant with those of a regulator and alterative, in exactly the proportion necessary to produce a radical change in the tone of the system, and the action of the digestive and secretory organs, is an unanswerable argument in its favor as a general restorative.

"G. M. D."
Don't stand aghast with awe and fear, eyes wide open, hair on end and fingers tightly clenched with the idea that these mysterious symbols are cabalistic signs and represent some secret organization of masked demons who can terrorize you at will with their midnight howlings and dispense on the dawn of morning. No! The Golden Medical Discovery, that pleasant medicine which has acquired a National reputation, and proved so efficacious in Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption and kindred diseases. For these complaints it has no equal. Seld by all druggists.

"THE LIFE OF THE FLESH IS THE BLOOD."—This being the fact, it is very obvious that when the blood becomes corrupted, the whole system becomes corrupt also. To relieve this, the true policy undoubtedly is to direct the remedy to the source of the disease. It is in this manner that Dr. Tutts' Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight acts. Its specific effect is on the blood; it purifies it, vitalizes it, and expels all dystemper from the system.

Being freed from violent humors, it is adapted to general use. The old and young may use it; the most delicate female, at any time, may take it; the weak and feeble will be strengthened by it; the tender infant, who may have inherited disease, will be cured by it.

For Syphilis, and all its trains of evils, it is a sure antidote.

Dr. Tutts' Liver Pills are a mild and gentle purgative, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving congestive or torpid liver. They have no equal HEARTFORD COUNTY, N. C., September 4th, 1872.

To the Editors of Raleigh Daily News: Any political change in a country, great or small, exercises a beneficial or deleterious influence upon its mechanical, commercial and agricultural interest. The laws of production and consumption are necessarily relative, and consequently any cause, that militates against the one, must effect injuriously the other, and vice versa. We have had a recent example of this in our own land. With the abolition of slavery, men pondered in what conceivable way, the world's demand for cotton could be supplied. It was thought that the blacks, by nature indolent and careless for the future, would emigrate to States more Southern in climate and fertile in soils, adapted to the cultivation of this plant; and thus the Border States, being in a great measure deprived of field labor, would retrograde in agriculture. The reverse of all this has taken place, for though we see the negro gradually disappearing from among us, still we perceive no diminution of agricultural products, but rather an increase of the same. It was well to inquire into this. We are free to confess, that North Carolina for instance has received a very valuable foreign element since the war, and that thereby her resources have been developed. In regard to the immigrants, however, it should be steadily kept in view, that the majority of them are artisans, and the few who have engaged in farming, have turned their attention mostly to horticulture, floriculture and wine culture.

This, being admitted, it follows, of course, that the amount of cotton raised, as great if not greater than at any time previous to the war, is not dependent either upon the contraction or expansion of labor. It was more folly to assert that the area of territory is as large as when the cultivator possessed involuntary labor. Then, the question presented for solution is, why is it that we still maintain our maximum of cotton bales in defiance of these seemingly insurmountable obstacles? We think we have the key to the problem, and we do not hesitate to say that it is mainly due to the very general and extensive employment of fertilizers. Let it be proven and admitted that manure and composted manures are equally as good, yet we will dare to assert that no one will contend that they are equally as cheap, when the amount of hired labor, necessary to their final application to the land, is taken into consideration. Let us illustrate: One hundred dollars will purchase a ton and a half of good fertilizer; the same amount of money will not procure the annual service of a fair laborer. The above quantity of "bought manure" is sufficient for fifteen acres; of the article manufactured at home it requires at least, as a moderate supply, one hundred loads to the acre, amounting in all to fifteen hundred loads. Let any practical farmer make an estimate of the cost of the making and of the transporting of this immense mass, and he can readily convince himself of the economy practiced in the use of fertilizers. We could not discourage composting, but it is too burdensome and too expensive to be relied upon; and again, it is impossible to raise and cart enough to manure the entire crop. There are many kinds of fertilizers before the public; their name is legion, and therefore, it frequently becomes a matter of much difficulty and doubt in the mind of the farmer, which, among the many, is the best. Experimenting to test their relative value is all very good, but far too costly. The farmer needs and demands one of superior excellence. Every one concedes that the Peruvian Guano is a most superior article, but the question is, can we employ it with profitable results. The immense cost in shipping it round Cape Horn or by rail over the Isthmus of Panama, moreover it is a monopoly to be bought and paid for in bright gold or its equivalent. Can we not obtain a substitute for this, approximating by superior combinations of fertilizing elements, and thereby achieving the same, or nearly the same crop, save to ourselves a wide margin—this is the question in a nut shell.

We are not discussing in this connection the merits of Bone Dust, Lime or Plaster, but what is commonly understood as a Fertilizer.

There is one primary objection to many of these fertilizers; an objection urged by nearly every one employing them. It is generally believed that when a new article is put upon the market, it is superior to any subsequent manufacture of the same, and hence we see agriculturists changing from the use of one to another each succeeding season. What we desire is an article commanding our patronage by its superior excellence and by our confidence in the integrity of those who manipulate it.

We, of the South, of course would prefer a Southern article to any that comes to us, however well recommended, from any other quarter. And when a gentleman of scientific attainments, well known to all intelligent men, and thoroughly acquainted with the great Southern staple—it is and should be no matter of surprise, that he should be hailed as a benefactor and that the careful result of his investigation should be most cordially welcomed by the farming interest. To this fact is mainly due the steadily increasing popularity of "Gilliam's Cotton Fertilizer." A Professor of Chemistry, applied and scientific in a school of wide spread renown, his name carries with it and demands our respect; a gentleman of high social position, no one believes it his intention to constrict a colossal fortune at the expense of his impoverished South. For the time of its introduction it has spread over a vast area of territory and elicited commendation from people in all ranks and walks of life. That it is what it purports to be, no one, knowing its inventor, would, we presume, dare deny. It has been amply tested in our county, (Hertford, N. C.) also in Southampton, Va., and we have heard only an echo in praise of its merits. Dr. Cyrus L. Worrell, a practical and successful farmer, and Jas. E. Worrell, his brother, have, during the present year, almost exclusively used it, and pronounced in its favor more emphatically. They assert that, in addition to its very superior excellence as a fertilizer, it causes the growth to endure the drought most successfully. Upon test made by Dr. Worrell of thirty bushels of raw cotton seed applied to one, and two hundred pounds Gilliam's Fertilizer applied to another acre, he says that the growth upon the latter is vastly superior—more luxuriant, better limbed and baled. It were tedious to add testimonials in its favor; they are too many even in our limited knowledge. C. W. Norfolk, Va., are the sole agents for this home-made Southern manure; and we regard the day as not far distant when, for their tireless zeal in its introduction, they will be regarded as among the few who have successfully combated against ignorance and prejudice and rendered abortive the attempts of foreigners to introduce their worthless articles in our midst.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1872.

DON'T CHEAT THE PRINTER.

The man who cheats the printer
Out of a single cent,
Will never reach the heavenly land
Where old Elijah went.

He will not gain admittance there,
By saying he'll be driven,
And made to loaf his time away
Outside the walls of heaven.

Without a man to greet him,
Without a pleasant grin,
The happiness that he will reap
Will be altogether thin.

He'll have to eat the thistle
Of sorrow and regret,
He'll have to buck around right smart
With consequences. You bet!
